

MONTE NAPOLEON, an extraordinary ensemble of musicians, playing an appealing blend of melodies.

Monte Napoleon is an acoustic band with four talented musicians who bring together many years of collective musical experience.

The energy and enthusiasm behind Monte Napoleon, Dan Luther brings the personality to the group to life with the friendly, personal rapport he has with the audience, as well as singing, playing guitar and bass.

In addition to singing, Alan Landes also plays guitar. He has played in bands with Dan for more years than either one of them want to admit, they have been performing together for many years.

Rick Toy is the guitar player every band wants. He's knowledgeable in almost every genre and can sing as well.

Bassist Ken Bernardo is an extremely versatile musician, playing bass and guitar, in addition to his dynamic vocal power and range.
